IMPORTANT POINTS FOR ADMISSION TO CTM-IRTE

All candidates must adhere to the following guidelines when seeking admission:

1. Document submission:

- Attach all relevant documents, including mark sheets of qualifying examinations, proof of age, etc. along with the completed application form.
- Incomplete or incorrect application forms will be summarily rejected.
- Candidates who have appeared for their 12th board examination and are awaiting results should attach an undertaking stating the same.

2. CGPA to Percentage conversion:

- Candidates must use the appropriate conversion formula for converting CGPA to a percentage where applicable.

3. Document scanning:

- If applying via email, send colored-scanned copies of each original document (no photocopies allowed) along with the filled application form for admission to the B.Sc. - M.Sc. Forensic Science course.

4. Application fee:

- The application will be deemed incomplete without the payment of the application fee. Please note that this amount is non-refundable.

5. Selection criteria:

- Selection will be based on merit and scrutiny of the submitted documents. The decision of the management of CTM-IRTE will be final.

Note: The College reserves the right to make necessary changes to these regulations and dates. Candidates are advised to regularly check the college website for updates.

Please ensure compliance with the above guidelines to facilitate a smooth admission process.
